Reference Document for General Meeting of Shareholders

Proposal No. 1: Election of Ten (10) Directors (Excluding Directors who Are Members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee)

The terms of office of all ten (10) Directors (excluding Directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) will expire at the conclusion of this meeting. Shareholders are asked to approve the election of ten (10) Directors (excluding Directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee), which will increase the number of External Director by one (1) in order to strengthen the management oversight function.

The Audit and Supervisory Committee has examined the selections of Director candidates, including by using input from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, a unit that was established voluntarily to give advice to the Board of Directors. For candidates for reelection, the Audit and Supervisory Committee evaluated each individual's performance, accomplishments, participation at board meetings and other factors. For candidates to become new Directors, this committee examined their backgrounds and other characteristics. The Audit and Supervisory Committee concluded that the proper procedure was used to select these candidates and that they are qualified to serve as Directors.

The candidates for Directors (excluding Directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) are as follows:

- Notes: 1. This skill matrix covers skills and experience where individuals can utilize their professional knowledge and is not intended to encompass all of the knowledge of these individuals.
2. Industry experience refers to the retail, services, manufacturing and supply chain sectors, which are key categories for the businesses of the AOKI Group.
3. In categories that are priorities for the AOKI Group, the goal is to maintain the proper balance among all Directors with regard to their experience, professional skills and other characteristics. Categories of experience and professional skills that are currently insufficient are supplemented by capabilities of individuals other than Directors.

Proposal No. 3: Election of One (1) Substitute Director who Is a Member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee

The term of office of the current Substitute Director who is a member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee ends at the beginning of this meeting. To be prepared for an insufficient number of Audit and Supervisory Committee members as mandated by laws and regulations, shareholders are asked to elect one (1) substitute. As stated in Article 22-4 of the Articles of Incorporation, the term of office of a Substitute Director who is a member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee begins on the day the resolution to elect this individual is approved by shareholders and ends at the beginning of the shareholders meeting for the last fiscal year that ends within two years the resolution approval day. As long as the Substitute Director who is a member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee has not become a Director who is a member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, the election of this individual can be canceled by a resolution of the Board of Directors with the consent of the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

This proposal has received the consent of the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

Reasons for nomination as candidate for substitute External Director who is a member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee and summary of expected roles

Mr. Yoshiyuki Tanaka has many years of experience as an attorney and a broad range of knowledge in this field. Although he has no direct corporate management experience, he has the skills needed to perform his duties in the event that he is needed to fill a vacancy as a Director who is a member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

Special notes regarding candidate for substitute Director who is a member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee

1. Mr. Tanaka has any special conflicts of interest with the Company.
2. Mr. Tanaka is the candidate for election as a substitute External Director. If he assumes office, the Company plans to register him as an Independent Director as provided for the rules of the Tokyo Stock Exchange.
3. If Mr. Tanaka assumes office as a substitute External Director who is a member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Company will enter into liability limitation agreement with him in accordance with Article 427, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. The limit of the liability under such agreement is the minimum liability amount stipulated by laws and regulations. An overview of liability limitation agreement is in "Status of Corporate Officers, (5) Overview of Liability Limitation Agreement" of the Business Report.
4. The Company has purchased a liability insurance policy from an insurance company for Directors. If Mr. Tanaka assumes office as a substitute External Director who is a member of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, he will be covered by this policy. An overview of liability insurance agreement for Directors is in "Overview of Liability Insurance Agreement for Executives" of the Business Report. The insurance policy is scheduled to be renewed with the same terms and conditions at the next renewal.

Policy and procedure for the selection of candidates

Director candidates are selected by using two standards that take into consideration the need for the proper overall balance of knowledge, experience and skills for the Board of Directors. The first is the selection of individuals who excel in terms of professional knowledge and corporate ethics and are able to reach decisions with speed and accuracy. The second is the selection of individuals who will have a firm commitment to the management philosophy of the AOKI Group. The procedure for the selection of candidates begins when the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is asked to provide advice concerning proposed candidates. The recommendations of this committee are then submitted to the Board of Directors for final decisions.

Independence Criteria of External Directors

The Company classifies an External Director as independent if none of the following items is applicable.

1. Relationship with the Company

Currently or at any time during the past 10 years, the individual was an officer or employee, which includes position as a director with business executive responsibilities, an executive officer or employee, of an AOKI Group (the Company and its subsidiaries) company.

2. Significant business relationship

(1) Company with a significant business relationship with the AOKI Group or officer or employee of this company

A significant business relationship is defined as a volume of transactions during the past three years equivalent to at least 2% of the Company's consolidated sales during that period.

(2) An entity or officer or employee the entity for which the AOKI Group is a significant source of business

A significant business relationship is defined as a volume of transactions with the AOKI Group during the past three years equivalent to at least 2% of the consolidated sales of the other company during that period or loans by the other company to the AOKI Group that are equivalent to at least 2% of the Company's consolidated assets.

3. Relationship with external professional service provider

(1) An entity that has received average annual compensation of more than 10 million yen (or other form of financial benefit) from the AOKI Group during the past three years, other than compensation as a Director, for the provision of consulting, accounting, tax or legal services. If the entity is a company or organization, this provision also applies to individuals belonging to the entity who received from the entity average annual financial benefits during the past three years equivalent to more than 2% of the average annual revenue of the entity during that period.

(2) An employee or other person employed at the independent auditor for the financial reports of the AOKI Group.

4. Major Shareholders

An individual who directly or indirectly owns at least 10% of the Company's voting rights or an officer or employee of a company, including its subsidiaries, that owns at least 10% of the Company's voting rights.

5. Organizations or individuals receiving donations from the AOKI Group

An organization or officer or employee of an organization that received annual donations of at least 10 million yen during the past three years from the AOKI Group.

6. A spouse or close relative of an individual where any of items 1 through 5 is applicable. However, if the spouse or close relative is an officer or employee involving the relationship, this restriction applies only in the case of a senior executive officer (director with business executive responsibilities, executive officer, or manager supervising key business operations).

7. If none of these items applies to an individual, there is no risk of a consistent conflict of interest with ordinary shareholders.
